Lynchburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG. VA., August 22.—The election passed in Lynchburg very quietly, though the friends of all of the candidates put forth every effort for their respective friends, but the result was not the large vote that was anticipated, the total being 1,500. The surprise of the dayshere was that Judge Mann carried the city by seven plurality. It was generally expected the vote would be close for Governor, but Swanson and Willard were picked as the winners.

The greatest interest is being manifested in the returns to-night, fully 2,000 being congrated in front of the News office, where they are being displayed, while the Elks' Home, where a special wire is giving bulletins, is crowded to its capacity.
